

Tour Dates: September 18 – 29, 2019
Tour Length: 11 Days / 10 Nights
Arrival Airport: Frankfurt (FRA)
Departure Airport: Berlin (BER)
Countries: Northern Germany

World War II History in North Germany.

Ruins of the Third Reich explores the technological and military side of National Socialism from 1933-1945. The Tour starts at the Frankfurt Airport and concludes 9 days later at Berlin Airport. We will have a guided Tour of Heinrich Himmler's infamous SS Castle at Wewelsburg. This Tour includes a visit the Dora Concentration Camp and underground armaments factory at Nordhausen. You will have the opportunity to visit the newly opened Documentation Center and see the underground tunnel system on a guided tour. Next, we visit the impressive Tank Museum in Munster with over 40 different tanks from World War II. We also visit Hamburg and the German Naval Memorial, Museum, German U-boat Memorial and U995 Submarine Technical Museum at Laboe near Kiel. Before heading to Berlin, we will spend a full day touring the former German rocket research, production and launch base at Peenemünde.

Visit Berlin where the War in Europe came to an end.

The last two nights of the Tour are in Berlin. We see all the German Capital has to offer during our stay, including the main former government buildings (Reichs Chancellory site, Göring's Luftwaffe, Gestapo Headquarters) as well as the Olympic Stadium. We spend half a day touring the city and we'll also see Checkpoint Charlie, Brandenburg Gate and the Reichstag building, among other city highlights. You can also book a later return flight home and spend a few more days in Berlin, or somewhere else. Book your hotel rooms and private tours and transfers on our website, or contact us for more information.
