Here is your chance to visit America's top secret military base!

Your full-day tour starts with a viewing of the top secret Janet Airlines, the airline that doesn't exist! Based at Las Vegas International Airport, the fleet of unmarked planes transport workers daily, to and from the infamous Area 51. We then enjoy an incredibly remote and scenic drive to inspect very unusual ancient Indian Petroglyphs that resemble Aliens. Next, we explore a mysterious dry lake, where recent UFO sightings have occurred. After another beautiful drive along the Extraterrestrial Highway we arrive at the famous Little A'le' Inn, located in Rachel. This location has been host to numerous documentaries and movies, including the filming of Independence Day. Here you will find a wealth of information on this top-secret area. Captain Chuck Clark, an ex-Air Force Captain, has written a manual on Area 51 and S-4, which is available for sale. After a very tasty Alien Burger at the Little A'le'Inn, we will travel to the infamous Black Mailbox, a sacred meeting place for UFO enthusiasts. Our adventure continues through the strange and very unusual, deformed, Joshua Tree Forest to arrive at the incredibly remote and absolute perimeter of Area 51. We will see the guards (cammo dudes or "Men in Black"), the detection devices, listening devices and cameras mounted among the cactus. The signs read, "Use of Deadly force Authorized" and they mean it! You can wave at the heavily armed guards in the 4x4 parked on the desert hillside but they don't wave back - they just watch from behind their darkened windows. This is an Extreme Tour to the world's most top-secret military facility, the real home of the X-Files: AREA 51.

In the unlikely case of extreme weather conditions, the trip may be cancelled or re-routed. Top Secret Tours and Adventure Photo Tours cannot guarantee that the Little A'le'Inn will be open.
